If the Noteholders give such a direction under this clause, then the principal Investment Amount of all Notes, all unpaid accrued profit (where applicable) and any other sum then payable on such Notes (in each case less any applicable taxes) shall be immediately due and payable by the Company and the Company shall immediately pay or repay such amounts to the Noteholders subject to the conditions of the relevant Information Memorandum.

- 7.3 The Noteholders will accept the benefit and be subject to the burden of the obligations on their part under the Security Trust Deed. If any Noteholder wishes to disclaim their obligations under this Instrument or the Security Trust Deed they may do so in writing at any time, which shall also release the Company from any obligation to that Noteholder under any Security Document.

8. BENEFIT OF INSTRUMENT

This Instrument will endure for the benefit of all Noteholders each of whom may sue for the performance or observance of the provisions of this Instrument so far as his/its holding of the Notes is concerned, and the Company covenants with the Noteholders and each of them as a separate and independent covenant in each case that for so long as any Notes are outstanding or any accrued profit is unpaid (where applicable), it will duly perform and observe the obligations on its part contained in this Instrument.

- 9.1 From the date of this Instrument and for so long as any amount is payable by the Company in respect of the Notes, the Company undertakes that it shall duly perform and observe the obligations on its part contained in this Instrument.

3 Profit

- 3.1 Until such time as the Notes are redeemed in accordance with the provisions of Condition 3.2, profit on the Notes shall accrue in respect of the Wakala Notes Period at the relevant Expected Profit Rate. However, the profit amount payable to the Noteholders will be based on the Actual Profit (achieved by the investments under the Wakala Notes) capped at the Expected Profit.

- 4.2 The Company may prior to any Redemption Date (including for the avoidance of doubt the Final Redemption Date), on giving any of the Noteholders not less than 10 Business Days' prior written notice, redeem the whole (whatever the amount) or any part of their holding of Notes at par, together with unpaid accrued profit up to (but excluding) the date of redemption. Any redemption of part only of the Notes under this Condition 4.2 shall be applied against the outstanding moneys under Condition 4.1 in inverse chronological order.

- 6.1 A Noteholder, any of whose Notes are due to be redeemed under any of the provisions of these conditions shall, not later than the due date for redemption, deliver to the Company (at its registered office for the time being or such other place in the United Kingdom as the Company may, from time to time, notify to the Noteholders) the certificate(s) for the Notes (or an indemnity in accordance with paragraph 5 of Schedule 2 of the Instrument where such certificate(s) is lost, defaced or destroyed) for cancellation. Upon delivery and against a receipt (if the Company so requires) for the moneys payable in respect of the Notes (including any profit where applicable), the Company shall pay to the Noteholder those moneys. The Company is not responsible for the safe custody of the amounts or related profit deposited into such bank account (if applicable). The Company is not, and the Noteholder is, entitled to the deposited amount in such bank account alongside any profit accrued on the same for a period of up to six years.
- 6.4 Amounts deposited in the profit-bearing Shariah compliant bank account in respect of any Notes which remain unclaimed by the Noteholder for a period of more than six years will be donated to a UK charity (to be approved by the Shariah Adviser of the Company). In such case from the date of donation, the Noteholder ceases to be entitled to any amounts and the Company is discharged from all obligations in respect of such Notes.

- 10.3 In the case of joint holders of any Notes, a notice or other document shall be given to whichever of them is named first in the Register in respect of the joint holding and notice given in this way is sufficient notice to all joint holders.
- 10.4 If a Noteholder (or, in the case of joint holders, the person first named in the Register) has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has notified the Company of an address in the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to him, he is entitled to have notices given to him at that address, but otherwise no such Noteholder or person is entitled to receive a notice or other document from the Company.

- 10.7 Where a person is entitled by transmission to any Notes, the Company may give a notice or other document to that person as if he were the holder of such Notes by addressing it to him by name or by the title of representative of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt member (or by similar designation) at an address in the United Kingdom supplied for that purpose by the person claiming to be entitled by transmission. Until an address has been supplied, a notice or other document may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the

SCHEDULE 2

PROVISIONS AS TO REGISTRATION, TRANSMISSION, TRANSFERABILITY AND OTHER MATTERS

1 Trusts not recognised

Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the Company shall not recognise a person as holding any Notes on trust and is not bound by or otherwise compelled to recognise (even if it has notice of it) an equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in any Notes other than an absolute right in the holder to the whole of the relevant Notes. The receipt of the registered holder for the time being of any Notes or, in the case of joint registered holders, the receipt of any of them, for the principal Investment Amount payable in respect of the Notes, for the profit from time to time accruing due in respect of the Notes or for any other moneys payable in respect of the Notes, shall be a good discharge to the Company, notwithstanding any notice it may have, whether express or otherwise, of the right, title, interest or claim of any other person to or in such Notes, profit or moneys. The Company shall not be bound to enter into any notice of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, on the Register in respect of any Notes or recognise any such trust.

2 Recognition of Noteholder

The Company shall recognise a Noteholder as entitled to his Notes and all payments in respect thereof, free from any equity, set-off or counter-claim on the part of the Company against that Noteholder or the original or any intermediate holder of the Notes.

3 Transfer of Notes

Subject to the provisions of paragraph 4, a Noteholder may not transfer his Notes.

4 Transmission of Notes

- 4.1 The Company may recognise only the personal representatives of a deceased Noteholder as having title to a Note held by that Noteholder alone or to which he alone was entitled. In the case of a Note held jointly by more than one person, the Company may recognise only the survivor or survivors as being entitled to it.
- 4.2 Nothing in this Instrument releases the estate of a deceased Noteholder from liability in respect of any Notes which has been solely or jointly held by him.
- 4.3 A person becoming entitled by transmission to any of the Notes may, on production of any evidence the Board may require, elect either to be registered as a Noteholder or to have a person nominated by him registered as a Noteholder. If he elects to be registered himself, he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the relevant Notes to that person. All the provisions of this Instrument relating to the transfer of any of the Notes apply to the notice or instrument of transfer (as the case may be) as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the Noteholder and his death, bankruptcy or other event giving rise to a transmission of entitlement had not occurred.
- 4.4 The Board may give notice requiring a person to make the election referred to in paragraph 4.3 above. If that notice is not complied with within 60 days of the giving of such notice, the Board may (in the case of redemption) withhold payment of principal Investment Amount, profit and all other amounts payable in respect of the relevant Notes until notice of election has been made. After 60 days of not receiving any notice from the Noteholder, the procedure on redemption and unclaimed moneys will apply as set out in Condition 6 of Schedule 1 to this Instrument.
- 4.5 Where a person becomes entitled by transmission to any of the Notes, the rights of the Noteholder in relation to the relevant Notes cease. The person entitled by transmission may, however, give a good discharge for principal Investment Amount, profit and other amounts payable in respect of the Notes and, subject to paragraphs 4.3, 4.4 and 6.4, has the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the relevant Notes. The person entitled by transmission is not, however, before he is registered as the holder of the relevant Notes, entitled in respect of it to receive notice of or exercise rights conferred by being a Noteholder in relation to meetings of the Noteholders.

5 Replacement certificates

Where a Note certificate is worn out, defaced, lost or destroyed, the Board may cancel it and issue a replacement certificate on such terms as to provision of evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional costs incurred by the Company in the investigation of that evidence and the preparation of that indemnity and security, as the Board may decide, and on surrender of the original certificate (where it is worn out or defaced).

6 Payments of amounts in respect of Notes

- 6.1 The Company may pay principal Investment Amount, profit or any other amount payable in respect of the Notes in cash or by cheque, warrant or money order, or by a bank or other funds transfer system, or by such other method as the holder or joint holders of the Notes in respect of which the payment is made (or the person or persons entitled by transmission to such Notes) may in writing direct. The holder, a joint holder or other person jointly entitled to any of the Notes may give an effective receipt for principal Investment Amount, profit or other amount paid in respect of the relevant Notes.
- 6.2 The Company may send a cheque, warrant or order by post:
- 6.2.1 in the case of a sole holder, to his registered address;
 - 6.2.2 in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of the person whose name stands first in the Register;
 - 6.2.3 in the case of a person or persons entitled by transmission to a Note, as if it were a notice given in accordance with Condition 10.7; or
 - 6.2.4 in any other case, to a person and address that the person or persons entitled to the payment may in writing direct.
- 6.3 Every cheque, warrant or order is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the payment and shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled. The payment of the cheque, warrant or order is a good and effective discharge to the Company of its obligations in respect of payment of the relevant amount. If payment is made by a bank or other funds transfer, or by another method at the direction of the holder or holders or other person or persons entitled, the Company is not responsible for amounts lost or delayed in the course of the transfer, or in carrying out those directions.
- 6.4 The Board may withhold payment of principal Investment Amount, profit and all other amounts payable to a person entitled by transmission to any of the Notes until he has provided any evidence of his right that the Board may reasonably require.
- 6.5 If the due date for payment of an amount in respect of the Notes is not a Business Day, the Noteholder is not entitled to payment of the amount until the next following Business Day, and is not entitled to any further amount in respect of the resulting delay in payment.
- 6.6 For the avoidance of doubt, if several persons are entered into the register as joint registered holders of any Notes then without prejudice to paragraphs 6.1 to 6.5 above the receipt of any one of such persons for any profit or principal Investment Amount or other money payable in respect of such notes shall be as effective a discharge to the Company as if the person signing such receipt were the sole registered holder of such notes.

PROVISIONS FOR MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS

1. Convening of meetings

- 1.1 The Company may at any time convene a meeting of the Noteholders.
- 1.2 The Company shall convene a meeting of the Noteholders immediately on receipt of a request in writing from Noteholders holding at the date of the deposit of the request not less than one-quarter in principal Investment Amount of the Notes outstanding as at that date.
- 1.3 The request:
 - 1.3.1 shall state the objects of the meeting;
 - 1.3.2 shall be signed by the registered holders of the relevant Notes and deposited at the Company's registered office; and
 - 1.3.3 may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more Noteholders.
- 1.4 A meeting is to be held at such place in the United Kingdom as the Company may decide.

2. Length and form of notice

- 2.1 A meeting convened for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by not less than 21 days' notice. All other meetings shall be called by not less than 14 days' notice.
- 2.2 The notice of meeting shall specify:
 - 2.2.1 the place, date and time of the meeting;
 - 2.2.2 the terms of each resolution to be proposed; and
 - 2.2.3 with reasonable prominence, that a Noteholder entitled to attend and vote may appoint one or more proxies to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of the Noteholder and that a proxy need not also be a Noteholder.
- 2.3 The accidental omission to send a notice of meeting or, in cases where it is sent out with the notice, an instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of either by a Noteholder does not invalidate the proceedings at a meeting or any resolution passed at any such meeting.

3. Quorum

- 3.1 No business may be transacted at a meeting unless a quorum is present. The absence of a quorum does not prevent the appointment of a chairman in accordance with paragraph 5, which is not treated as part of the business of the meeting.
- 3.2 The quorum for a meeting convened for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution is two or more Noteholders holding or representing by proxy a majority in principal Investment Amount of the Notes outstanding at the date of the meeting. The quorum for a meeting convened for any other purpose is persons holding or representing by proxy one-quarter in principal Investment Amount of the Notes outstanding at the date of the meeting.

4. Procedure if quorum not present

- 4.1 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes (or such longer period as the chairman in his

- 4.2 absolute discretion may decide) from the time fixed for the start of the meeting or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting:
- 4.2.1 if on the requisition of the Noteholders, is dissolved; or
- 4.2.2 in any other case, stands adjourned to such time (being not less than 14 days nor more than 28 days later) and place as the chairman (or, in default, the Board) may decide.
- 4.3 At an adjourned meeting, the quorum is the Noteholder(s) present in person or by proxy, whatever the principal Investment Amount of the Notes held by him/them. If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes (or such longer period as the chairman in his absolute discretion may decide) from the time fixed for the start of the meeting or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the adjourned meeting is dissolved.
- 4.4 The Company shall give not less than 7 days' notice of any meeting adjourned for the lack of a quorum and the notice shall comply with paragraph 2.2 and state the quorum requirement. For the avoidance of doubt the notice shall not conflict with the provisions of paragraph 9.

5. Chairman

- 5.1 A person nominated by the Company shall preside as chairman at a meeting.
- 5.2 The Noteholders present at the meeting shall select one of them to be chairman if:
- 5.2.1 no person has been nominated by the Company; or
- 5.2.2 at the meeting, the person nominated by the Company is not (i) present within 15 minutes after the time fixed for the start of the meeting or (ii) willing to act.

6. Right to attend and speak

Each member of the Board and any other person authorised in that on behalf by the Board may attend and speak at a meeting whether or not he is a Noteholder.

7. Power to adjourn

- 7.1 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall, if so directed by the meeting) adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period.
- 7.2 Without prejudice to any other power which he may have under the provisions of this schedule or at common law, the chairman may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period if he decides that it has become necessary to do so in order to:
- 7.2.1 secure the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting;
- 7.2.2 give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of speaking and voting at the meeting; or
- 7.2.3 ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

8. Notice of adjourned meeting

Without prejudice to paragraph 4.3, whenever a meeting is adjourned for 28 days or more or for an indefinite period, at least seven days' notice specifying the place, the date and the time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted shall be given to the Noteholders and each member of the Board. Except in these circumstances and subject to paragraph 4.3, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

9. Business at adjourned meeting

No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

10. Method of voting

- 10.1 At a meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided by a show of hands unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded.
- 10.2 A poll may be demanded on a question by the chairman of the meeting or a Noteholder or Noteholders present in person or by proxy representing in total not less than one quarter in principal Investment Amount of the Notes outstanding at the date of the meeting.
- 10.3 A demand by a proxy is deemed to be a demand by the Noteholder appointing the proxy.
- 10.4 Unless a poll is demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

11. Procedure on a poll

- 11.1 If a poll is properly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman may direct. He may appoint scrutineers, who need not be Noteholders, and may fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 11.2 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment. A poll demanded on another question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman may decide, either at once or after an interval or adjournment (but not more than 30 days after the date of the demand).
- 11.3 Notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case, at least seven days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 11.4 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman. A demand withdrawn in this way validates the result of a show of hands declared before the demand is made. In the case of a poll demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 11.5 The demand for a poll (other than on the election of the chairman or on a question of adjournment) does not prevent the meeting continuing for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
- 11.6 On a poll, votes may be given in person or by proxy and a Noteholder entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

12. Votes of Noteholders

- 12.1 At a meeting, every Noteholder present in person has, on a show of hands, one vote and every Noteholder present in person or by proxy has, on a poll, one vote for every £1 in principal Investment Amount of the Note or Notes of which he is the holder.

- 12.2 In the case of joint holders of a Note, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and seniority is determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the Register.

13. Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman has, on a show of hands and on a poll, a casting vote in addition to a vote to which he is entitled as a Noteholder.

14. Voting by proxy

- 14.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in any usual form (or in another form approved by the Board) executed by the appointor or his duly constituted attorney or, if the appointor is a company, under its seal or under the hand of its duly authorised officer or attorney or other person authorised to sign.
- 14.2 An instrument of proxy is deemed (unless the contrary is stated in it) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on a resolution or amendment of a resolution put to, or other business which may properly come before, the meeting or meetings for which it is given, as the proxy thinks fit.
- 14.3 A proxy need not be a Noteholder.
- 14.4 A Noteholder may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered for the same Note for use at the same meeting, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that Note.
- 14.5 Deposit of an instrument of proxy does not prevent a Noteholder attending and voting in person at the meeting or an adjournment of the meeting or on a poll.
- 14.6 An instrument of proxy is (unless the contrary is stated in it) valid for an adjournment of the meeting as well as for the meeting or meetings to which it relates. An instrument of proxy is valid for 12 months from the date of execution.
- 14.7 The Company may send an instrument of proxy to all or none of the persons entitled to receive notice of and to vote at a meeting. If sent, the instrument shall provide for two-way voting (without prejudice to a right to abstain) on all resolutions set out in the notice of meeting.

15. Deposit of proxy

- 15.1 An instrument of proxy, and (if required by the Board) a power of attorney or other authority under which it is executed or a copy of it notarially certified or certified in some other way approved by the Board, shall be:
- 15.1.1 deposited at the Company's registered office, or another place in the United Kingdom specified in the notice convening the meeting or in an instrument of proxy or other accompanying document sent by the Company in relation to the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of a poll at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote;
- 15.1.2 in the case of a meeting adjourned for less than 28 days but more than 48 hours or in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, deposited as required by paragraph 15.1.1 not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll; or 15.1.3 in the case of a meeting adjourned for less than 48 hours or in the case of a poll not taken immediately but taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, delivered at the adjourned meeting or at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman or to the secretary or to a director of the Company.

15.2 An instrument of proxy not deposited or delivered in accordance with paragraph 15.1 is invalid.

16. When votes by proxy valid though authority revoked

A vote given or poll demanded by a proxy or authorised representative of a company is valid despite termination of his authority unless notice of termination is received by the Company at its registered office (or other place specified for depositing the instrument of proxy) at least one hour before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which the vote is cast.

17. Corporate representative

A company which is a Noteholder may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise a person to act as its representative at a meeting or at a separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares (the "Representative"). The Representative may exercise on behalf of the company (in respect of that part of the company's holding of Notes to which the authorisation relates) those powers that the company could exercise if it were an individual Noteholder. The company is for the purposes of this schedule deemed to be present in person at a meeting if the Representative is present. Each reference to attendance and voting in person is to be construed accordingly. A member of the Board or the secretary of the Company or other person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require the Representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation before permitting him to exercise his powers.

18. Objection to and error in voting

No objection may be made to the qualification of a voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, a vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered or at which the error occurs. An objection properly made shall be referred to the chairman and only invalidates the result of the voting if, in the opinion of the chairman, it is of sufficient magnitude to affect the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman is conclusive and binding on all concerned.

19. Amendments to resolutions

If an amendment proposed to a resolution under consideration is ruled out of order by the chairman, the proceedings on the substantive resolution are not invalidated by an error in his ruling.

20. Powers of meetings of Noteholders

20.1 In addition to any other power, a meeting of Noteholders may by Special Resolution and with the written consent of the Company sanction any modification, abrogation or compromise in any respect of:

20.1.1 the provisions of this Instrument; or

20.1.2 the rights of the Noteholders against the Company, whether those rights arise under this Instrument or otherwise.

20.2 Without limiting paragraph 20.1, the Noteholders have power to sanction in accordance with paragraph 20.1:

- 20.2.1 an agreement for postponing or advancing the time for the payment of principal Investment Amount or profit payable in respect of the Notes;
 - 20.2.2 a proposal to the Company for increasing or reducing the Expected Profit Rate or for the capitalisation of any profit (where applicable);
 - 20.2.3 a proposal to the Company for the exchange of Notes for, or conversion of Notes into, other securities of the Company or another company (where applicable); and
 - 20.2.4 a matter which under the provisions of this Deed is required to be sanctioned by Special Resolution.
- 20.3 A Special Resolution is binding upon each Noteholder whether or not present at the meeting and each Noteholder is bound to give effect to the Special Resolution.

21. Definition of Special Resolution

The expression "Special Resolution" means a resolution passed at a meeting of the Noteholders duly convened and held in accordance with the provisions herein contained by a majority consisting of not less than 75% of the persons voting thereat (whether in person or by proxy) upon a show of hands and if a poll is demanded then by a majority consisting of not less than 75% of the votes given on such poll.

22. Written resolutions

A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of Noteholders holding not less than 75% in principal Investment Amount of Notes for the time being outstanding who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a meeting at which he was present is as effective as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held. The resolution in writing may consist of several instruments in the same form each duly executed by or on behalf of one or more Noteholders. If the resolution in writing is described as a Special Resolution, it has effect accordingly.

23. Minutes of meetings

- 23.1 The Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of meetings of the Noteholders to be entered in books kept for that purpose.
- 23.2 A minute, if purporting to be signed by the chairman for the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chairman of the next meeting, is conclusive evidence of the proceedings.
- 23.3 Where minutes have been made in accordance with this paragraph 23 of the proceedings at a meeting then, until the contrary is proved, the meeting is deemed duly held and convened, and all proceedings had at the meeting to have been duly had.
